GOSPEL REFLECTION

The readings today remind us of the importance of hospitality, and how a person who is hospitable serves God through their hospitality. However, we can fall into the trap as Martha did in the Gospel to focus only on the work we do, neglecting the important work of spending time with the Lord in prayer. Let us make an effort to allow prayer to be a precursor to our work, allowing the prayer to transform the work we do and make it more fruitful.

IT'S SUMMER

While things do slow down in our parish during the summer months, this is also a great opportunity for all of us to think of how we might be more involved in the life of our community. Perhaps God is calling you to be a lector or Eucharistic Minister. Perhaps you might want to be an usher or altar server. Maybe you would like to sing in the choir. We very much need people to be catechists or leaders for the children's liturgy. We could use more funeral servers too! We also have active groups for both men and women who gather to grow in faith, to do works of service and to build community life. There are so many wonderful opportunities for people to be more involved, so spend some time reflecting on how you can contribute your time and talent for the good of our parish
