GOSPEL REFLECTION

Today's Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our "invisible" gifts like love, mercy and forgiveness. True joy comes from "emptying" ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered."

CANADIAN MISSIONS COLLECTION AUGUST 13TH & 14TH

Canadian Missions in Canada fosters and extends blessings of the Catholic faith by supporting many missions in many regions of our country where the population is too small, or the economic situation of the community is too fragile. Catholic Missions in Canada and the selected dioceses in Northern Canada will benefit from your generosity to sustain and extend the Catholic faith to isolated, poor and hard-to-reach mission areas in our country. Thank you for your support of this important work!

RIFLESSIONE DEL VANGELO

Il messaggio nel vangelo di oggi è contrario alla cultura moderna che cerca continuamente di convincerci che la nostra gioia viene dalle cose materiali che possediamo. Che più acquisiamo, più saremo felici. Gesù ci mostra che la nostra vera gioia viene dai nostri doni "invisibili" come l'amore, la misericordia e il perdono. Siamo chiamati non ad accumulare ma a condividere. La vera gioia viene dal vivere uno stile di vita grato e generoso; diventare più "centrati su Dio" e meno "egocentrici".
